If you are currently serving active duty in the military, you are eligible for benefits under the Service Member Civil Relief Act on your Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP) loans obtained prior to your active duty. The maximum interest rate that may be charged on eligible loans is 6% during periods of service on or after August 14, 2008. The 6% interest rate will remain in effect until your period of service is completed.

If you would to apply for this benefit, please sign, date, and return this form with a copy of your orders to the address or fax number listed below.
